DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. How has your perception of sex trafficking (commercial sexual exploitation) been enriched or challenged by this discussion?

2. In the program, Sgt Geiger described a shift in the way police view victims. How does our perception of victims impact our response?

3. How does safe, confidential advocacy help survivors, and what role does it play in prosecuting traffickers?

4. When you consider the harsh realities of trafficking in our community, what breaks your heart? What fills you with hope?

5. In what ways can you, your church, and community play a more active role in supporting local anti-trafficking efforts?
